NARRATIVE:

Kevin Lamb has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 25. His convictions include corporal injury on spouse, evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others, prison escape with force, possession of narcotic controlled substances, sale of narcotics, fraudulent use of telephone lines, driving with suspended license, resisting a peace officer and being a habitual traffic offender. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others. Lamb was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 03, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lamb qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
